"Yes," replied a young man to his companion on F street yesterday afternoon, "that's the tailor I referred to the other evening when we were discussing the causes for the great and sudden popularity attained by many local society men; let's go in and see what's new." The two had just reached the establishment of a certain fashionable F street tailor.

Surplus..... 142,984.86 Doing more business than ever before. Owing to the cheapness and abundance of money we have voluntarily reduced the rate of interest to those borrowing from us. We are paying 5 per cent per annum to the depositors, payable every quarter. These reduced rates of interest to borewers and depositors are greatly to the advantage of the association and makes our already strong position still stronger, and yet affording a very satisfactory profit to the members. Our aggregate of profits last year were $124,382.37 and our expenses $12,170.00, or less than 10 per cent, while it cost the other financial institutions of the city

It is not the want of opportunity, but the want of will, that stands in the way of having a bank account. Men may labor receasingly with hand or head—but it's only when less it spent than is received that a person is better off for labor. Try saving a month or two months after first depositing a dollar to become a depositor and see if the force of labit will not keep you at it. Union Savings Bank-1222 F St.
